made several cures of paipitation of the heart and general debility.

Thomas Stanford, Esq., Blountsville, Henry co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the beart of the most severe and prostrating character, "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

George W. Hoffman says he was nifficted with Khou matism for twenty years, in all its various forms, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting a cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says, "for rheumatism, dispepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection, or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. Hunt writes from Delphois, Allen co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he most cheerfully recommends them of decided merit in a cases of fever and ague and general debility.
